

Almeria Homes

This is a semi-detached farmhouse close to Zurgena and just a few minutes away from the local village of La Alfoquia which has all the amenities you need for day to day living.

The property is a traditionally styled farmhouse, with rustic wooden beams and many traditional features.

On the ground floor there is a large dining/living area with a fireplace, fitted kitchen and a family bathroom, and on the first floor there are three large bedrooms.

There is also a second building which you could convert into further accommodation for guests or for a rental business. There is also a fenced plot with several olive trees.

This property has a tarmac access from the main road and has mains facilities connected.
