Beautiful 4 bed 1 bath traditional Spanish property situated in the lovely town of Fines which offers all necessary amenities such as supermarkets, banks, bakeries, butchers, medic and much more.

To the front of the house there is a terrace which leads to the front door. Through the front door is a hallway with a door to the left which opens into a double bedroom. To the right there is a door that leads into a small living area and another double bedroom. Through the hallway there is another living area with a door to the right which opens into a basic spanish kitchen with a door that leads into a washing area and a small bathroom with a bath, basin and WC.

From the living area there is a door to the left which gives access to another bedroom and another kitchen area with a wood burner. From here there is access to a well-sized garage and to the back terrace where there is a lot of outdoor space and various storage rooms.

This property would be ideal as a B&B or Rural Home, or even simply used as a lock up and go holiday home as the current owners do.
