To the front of the house there is a terrace which leads to the front door. Through the front door is a well sized fitted kitchen diner/ living area. To the left is a utility area and a bathroom with a shower, vanity unit and WC. From the kitchen there are two doors, one on the right where there is a well-sized double bedroom. To the left there is another double bedroom with access to the staircase.

From the bedroom the staircase leads up to a large open plan room which could be converted into a a bedroom. There is also a large room which could be a living area. To the left of the large room there is a bedroom.

There is also a newly built garage which has a separate room and water and electricity. This garage could be converted into a separate apartment.
