Nestled close to the lovely village of Las Pocicas, this delightful terraced country house presents a fantastic opportunity for those seeking a tranquil retreat in the heart of rural Spain.

The property stands out due to its elevated position, offering stunning panoramic views of the picturesque surroundings. A new concrete drive provides easy access to the property and is shared with friendly neighbours, ensuring convenience and community spirit. Parking by the front door adds to the practicality of this home.

With a new roof in place, this country house promises durability and low maintenance for its occupants. Stepping inside, you are greeted by a welcoming lounge area with integrated cupboards and an inviting open fire—a perfect spot for cosy evenings. The ground floor includes a fitted kitchen, a double bedroom, utility room, an additional bedroom or sitting room, and a family bathroom. Accessible from here is a generous 42m² garage that could easily be transformed to extend the living space. Venturing upstairs reveals a small landing leading to two spacious bedrooms, offering privacy and comfort for residents.

The location is also advantageous; just a short 1-minute drive from Las Pocicas village and within easy reach (10 minutes by car) of Albox's amenities and services.

One notable feature is the option to acquire the neighbouring property, providing potential to create an expansive estate. This is the link to the property next door: <http://ahom.es/14726> or simply search Cortijo Riviera - AH14726 on our website.

Ideal for those drawn to peaceful countryside living yet desiring proximity to urban conveniences, this terraced country house represents a unique opportunity in Almeria's charming landscape.
