A large, level plot planted with almond and fig trees, located beside a small hamlet and just a short drive from the town of Albox with all essential amenities.

The land is ideal for parking a mobile home or motorhome, or for developing a substantial fruit-tree orchard, especially given the growing demand for eco-friendly products such as olives and olive oil.

In the coming years, the plot may fall within the urban boundary of Partalooa, making it a smart long-term investment opportunity.
