Holiday home

Lovely little property with amazing views in the Oria area.

The property comprises two bedrooms, one double and a single box room, small kitchen with all white goods included, spacious living room with fireplace, family bathroom upstairs, storage area and access to the patio. On the outside of the property there is a well sized patio where you can enjoy the sun and the amazing views over the mountains. This property is perfect for a holiday home or as a rental.

There is also an old animal pen opposite the house as well as a space for parking.

The area is very nice and green, has great views and it's very quiet.
