A fabulous three bedroom country property for sale in Almeria set in a lovely village with stunning views.

The property comprises spacious living / dining room with feature fireplace, well sized fitted kitchen, three large bedrooms, one with an en-suite bathroom, and a large family bathroom.

There is also a well sized roof terrace, you really can enjoy the stunning views from here.

The property was renovated but it has been left empty for some time now so does require some renovations. It's mainly cleaning and painting and DIY but part of the roof needs to be repaired upstairs.

The property is set in an enviable setting close to the motorway links to Granada and Alicante. The nearby town of Chirivel has all the amenities required for everyday living.
